24 the litigation to prevent public disclosure of their identities while facilitating the taking 25 of discovery (see Redline Sections 2.12, 7.4, 13.3); and
- 26 d) The addition of a section concerning the disclosure of Criminal Offender Record

[PROPOSED] STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER FOR LITIGATION INVOLVING HIGHLY SENSITIVE CONFIDENTIAL
INFORMATION

Trial Date: None set.

1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Disclosure and discovery activity in this action are likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles. The parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Section 14.4, below, that this Stipulated Protective Order does not entitle them to file confidential information under seal; Civil Local Rule 79-5 sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under seal.

3. SCOPE

The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only Protected Material (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from Protected Material; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of Protected Material; and (3) any testimony, conversations, or presentations by Parties or their Counsel that might reveal Protected Material. However, the protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order do not cover the following information: (a) any information that is in the public domain at the time of disclosure to a Receiving Party or becomes part of the public domain after its disclosure to a Receiving Party as a result of publication not involving a violation of this Order, including becoming part of the public record through trial or otherwise; and (b) any information known to the Receiving Party prior to the disclosure or obtained by the Receiving Party after the disclosure from a source who obtained the information lawfully and under no obligation of confidentiality to the Designating Party. Any use of Protected Material at trial shall be governed by a separate agreement or order.

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

4. DURATION

Even after final disposition of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations imposed by this Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees otherwise in writing or a court order otherwise directs. Final disposition shall be deemed to be the later of (1) dismissal of all claims and defenses in this action, with or without prejudice; and (2) final judgment herein after the completion and exhaustion of all appeals, rehearings, remands, trials, or reviews of this action, including the time limits for filing any motions or applications for extension of time pursuant to applicable law.

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each Party or Non-Party that designates information or items for protection under this Order must take care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate standards. To the extent it is practical to do so, the Designating Party must designate for protection only those parts of material, documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify – so that other portions of the material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order.

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to unnecessarily encumber or retard the case development process or to impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) expose the Designating Party to sanctions.

If it comes to a Designating Party's attention that information or items that it designated for protection do not qualify for protection at all or do not qualify for the level of protection initially asserted, that Designating Party must promptly notify all other parties that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this Order (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, Disclosure or Discovery

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

Material that qualifies for protection under this Order must be clearly so designated before the material is disclosed or produced.

Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

(a) for information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic documents, but excluding

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), that the Producing Party affix the legend “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY”

~~{Optional: or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE”}~~ to each page that contains protected material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins) and must specify, for each portion, the level of protection being asserted.

A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents or materials available for inspection need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has indicated which material it would like copied and produced. During the inspection and before the designation, all of the material made available for inspection shall be deemed “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.” After the inspecting Party has identified the documents it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party must determine which documents, or portions thereof, qualify for protection under this Order. Then, before producing the specified documents, the Producing Party must affix the appropriate legend (“CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” ~~{Optional: or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE”}~~) to each page that contains Protected Material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins) and must specify, for each portion, the level of protection being asserted.

(b) for testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial proceedings, that the Designating Party identify on the record, before the close of the deposition, hearing, or other proceeding, all protected testimony and specify the level of protection being asserted. When it is impractical to identify separately each portion of testimony that is entitled to protection and it appears that substantial portions of the testimony may qualify for protection, the Designating Party may invoke on the record (before the deposition, hearing, or other proceeding is concluded) a right to have up to 21 days to identify the specific portions of the testimony as to which protection is sought and to specify the level of protection being asserted. Only those portions of the testimony that are appropriately designated for protection within the 21 days shall be covered by the provisions of this Stipulated Protective Order. Alternatively, a Designating Party may specify, at the deposition or up to 21 days afterwards if that period is properly invoked, that the entire transcript shall be treated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.”

Parties shall give the other parties notice if they reasonably expect a deposition, hearing or other proceeding to include Protected Material so that the other parties can ensure that only authorized individuals who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A) are present at those proceedings. The use of a document as an exhibit at a deposition shall not in any way affect its designation as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.”

Transcripts containing Protected Material shall have an obvious legend on the title page that the transcript contains Protected Material, and the title page shall be followed by a list of all pages (including line numbers as appropriate) that have been designated as Protected Material and the level of protection being asserted by the Designating Party. The Designating Party shall inform the court reporter of these requirements. Any transcript that is prepared before the expiration of a 21-day period for designation shall be treated during that period as if it had been designated “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” in its entirety unless otherwise agreed. After the expiration of that period, the transcript shall be treated only as actually designated.

(c) for information produced in some form other than documentary and for any other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the legend “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” ~~[Optional: or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE”]~~. If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant protection, the Producing Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s) and specify the level of protection being asserted.

5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the Designating Party’s right to secure protection under this Order for such material. Upon timely correction of a designation, the

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

Receiving Party must make reasonable efforts to assure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any Party or Non-Party may challenge a designation of confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a Designating Party's confidentiality designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a Party does not waive its right to challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the original designation is disclosed.

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

6.2 Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party shall initiate the dispute resolution process by providing written notice of each designation it is challenging and describing the basis for each challenge. To avoid ambiguity as to whether a challenge has been made, the written notice must recite that the challenge to confidentiality is being made in accordance with this specific paragraph of the Protective Order. The parties shall attempt to resolve each challenge in good faith and must begin the process by conferring directly (in voice to voice dialogue; other forms of communication are not sufficient) within 14 days of the date of service of notice. In conferring, the Challenging Party must explain the basis for its belief that the confidentiality designation was not proper and must give the Designating Party an opportunity to review the designated material, to reconsider the circumstances, and, if no change in designation is offered, to explain the basis for the chosen designation. A Challenging Party may proceed to the next stage of the challenge process only if it has engaged in this meet and confer process first or establishes that the Designating Party is unwilling to participate in the meet and confer process in a timely manner.

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

6.3 Judicial Intervention. If the Parties cannot resolve a challenge without court intervention, the Designating Party shall file and serve a motion to retain confidentiality under Civil Local Rule 7 (and in compliance with Civil Local Rule 79-5, if applicable) within 21 days of the initial notice of challenge or within 14 days of the parties agreeing that the meet and confer process will not

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

1 resolve their dispute, whichever is earlier.⁴ Each such motion must be accompanied by a competent 2 declaration affirming that the movant has complied with the meet and confer requirements imposed in 3 the preceding paragraph. Failure by the Designating Party to make such a motion including the 4 required declaration within 21 days (or 14 days, if applicable) shall automatically waive the 5 confidentiality designation for each challenged designation. In addition, the Challenging Party may 6 file a motion challenging a confidentiality designation at any time if there is good cause for doing so,
 7 including a challenge to the designation of a deposition transcript or any portions thereof. Any motion
 8 brought pursuant to this provision must be accompanied by a competent declaration affirming that the 9 movant has complied with the meet and confer requirements imposed by the preceding paragraph.

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

10 The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the Designating Party.
 11 Frivolous challenges and those made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary 12 expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the Challenging Party to sanctions. Unless the 13 Designating Party has waived the confidentiality designation by failing to file a motion to retain 14 confidentiality as described above, all parties shall continue to afford the material in question the level
 15 of protection to which it is entitled under the Producing Party's designation until the court rules on the 16 challenge.

17 7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

18 7.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is disclosed or 19 produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with this case only for prosecuting, 20 defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Such Protected Material may be disclosed only to the 21 categories of persons and under the conditions described in this Order. When the litigation has been 22 terminated, a Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of section 15 below (FINAL 23 DISPOSITION).

24
 25
 26
 27 ~~⁴Alternative: It may be appropriate in certain circumstances for the parties to agree to shift the 28 burden to move on the Challenging Party after a certain number of challenges are made to avoid an abuse of the process. The burden of persuasion would remain on the Designating Party.~~

Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a location and in a secure manner² that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this Order.

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

7.2 Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated "CONFIDENTIAL" only to:

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

Formatted: Font: 12 pt

(a) the Receiving Party's Outside Counsel of Record in this action, as well as employees of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A;

(b) the officers, directors, and employees (including House Counsel) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A);

(c) Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A);

(d) the court and its personnel;

(e) court reporters and their staff, professional jury or trial consultants, and Professional Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A);

(f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the Designating Party or ordered by the court. Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected Material must be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this Stipulated Protective Order.

² ~~It may be appropriate under certain circumstances to require the Receiving Party to store any electronic Protected Material in password protected form.~~

(g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

7.3 Disclosure of “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY”

~~{Optional: and “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE”}~~ Information or Items, Unless otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” ~~{Optional: or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE”}~~ only to:

(a) the Receiving Party’s Outside Counsel of Record in this action, as well as employees of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A;

~~{(b) Optional as deemed appropriate in case specific circumstances: Designated House Counsel of the Receiving Party³ (1) who has no involvement in competitive decision making, (2) to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation, (3) who has signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A), and (4) as to whom the procedures set forth in paragraph 7.4(a)(1), below, have been followed};⁴~~

~~(be)~~ Experts of the Receiving Party (1) to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation, and (2) who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A), ~~and (3) as to whom the procedures set forth in paragraph 7.4(a)(2), below, have been followed};~~

(d) the court and its personnel;

³ It may be appropriate under certain circumstances to limit the number of Designated House Counsel who may access “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” information under this provision.

⁴ This Order contemplates that Designated House Counsel shall not have access to any information or items designated “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE.” It may also be appropriate under certain circumstances to limit how Designated House Counsel may access “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” information. For example, Designated House Counsel may be limited to viewing “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” information only if it is filed with the court under seal, or in the presence of Outside Counsel of Record at their offices.

~~7.4 Procedures for Approving or Objecting to Disclosure of “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” [Optional: or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—SOURCE CODE”] Information or Items to Designated House Counsel⁶ or Experts.⁷~~

(a)(1) Unless otherwise ordered by the court or agreed to in writing by the Designating Party, a Party that seeks to disclose to Designated House Counsel any information or item that has been designated “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” pursuant to paragraph 7.3(b) first must make a written request to the Designating Party that (1) sets forth the full name of the Designated House Counsel and the city and state of his or her residence, and (2) describes the Designated House Counsel’s current and reasonably foreseeable future primary job duties and responsibilities in sufficient detail to determine if House Counsel is involved, or may become involved, in any competitive decision-making.⁸

(a)(2) Unless otherwise ordered by the court or agreed to in writing by the Designating Party, a Party that seeks to disclose to an Expert (as defined in this Order) any information or item that has been designated “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” [Optional: or

⁵ Alternative: The parties may wish to allow disclosure of information not only to professional jury or trial consultants, but also to mock jurors, to further trial preparation. In that situation, the parties may wish to draft a simplified, precisely tailored Undertaking for mock jurors to sign.

⁶ Alternative: The parties may exchange names of a certain number of Designated House Counsel instead of following this procedure.

⁷ Alternative: “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” information or items may be disclosed to an Expert without disclosure of the identity of the Expert as long as the Expert is not a current officer, director, or employee of a competitor of a Party or anticipated to become one.

⁸ It may be appropriate in certain circumstances to require any Designated House Counsel who receives “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” information pursuant to this Order to disclose any relevant changes in job duties or responsibilities prior to final disposition of the litigation to allow the Designating Party to evaluate any later arising competitive decision-making responsibilities.

7.4 Plaintiffs' Names So long as ECF No. 30 remains in effect, no Party or Non-Party may file on the public docket any document that contains or reflects a Plaintiff's Name and no Party or Non-Party that has obtained Plaintiff's Name in the course of this litigation may disclose a Plaintiff's Name to a media outlet, in a press release, or in any other similar manner that is likely to lead to general public knowledge of the Plaintiff's Name. Plaintiffs' Names are neither CONFIDENTIAL nor HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL and may be disclosed to Parties and non-parties in the course of discovery in this litigation.

~~8. PROSECUTION BAR [Optional]~~

~~Absent written consent from the Producing Party, any individual who receives access to "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" [Optional: or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—SOURCE CODE"] information shall not be involved in the prosecution of patents or patent applications relating to [insert subject matter of the invention and of highly confidential technical information to be produced], including without limitation the patents asserted in this action and any patent or application claiming priority to or otherwise related to the patents asserted in this action, before any foreign or domestic agency, including the United States Patent and Trademark~~

Office (“the Patent Office”).¹¹ For purposes of this paragraph, “prosecution” includes directly or indirectly drafting, amending, advising, or otherwise affecting the scope or maintenance of patent claims.¹² To avoid any doubt, “prosecution” as used in this paragraph does not include representing a party challenging a patent before a domestic or foreign agency (including, but not limited to, a reissue protest, ex parte reexamination or inter partes reexamination). This Prosecution Bar shall begin when access to “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” [Optional: or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—SOURCE CODE”] information is first received by the affected individual and shall end two (2) years after final termination of this action.¹³

9. ~~SOURCE CODE~~ [Optional]

(a) To the extent production of source code becomes necessary in this case, a Producing Party may designate source code as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—SOURCE CODE” if it comprises or includes confidential, proprietary or trade secret source code.

(b) Protected Material designated as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—SOURCE CODE” shall be subject to all of the protections afforded to “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—SOURCE CODE” shall be subject to all of the protections afforded to “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” information [Optional: including the Prosecution Bar set forth in Paragraph 8], and may be disclosed only to the individuals to whom “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” information may be disclosed, as set forth in Paragraphs 7.3 and 7.4, with the exception of Designated House Counsel.¹⁴

¹¹ It may be appropriate under certain circumstances to require Outside and House Counsel who receive access to “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” information to implement an “Ethical Wall.”

¹² Prosecution includes, for example, original prosecution, reissue and reexamination proceedings.

¹³ Alternative: It may be appropriate for the Prosecution Bar to apply only to individuals who receive access to another party’s “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” technical or source code information pursuant to this Order, such as under circumstances where one or more parties is not expected to produce “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” information that is technical in nature or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—SOURCE CODE” information.

¹⁴ It may be appropriate under certain circumstances to allow House Counsel access to derivative materials including “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—SOURCE CODE” information, such as exhibits to motions or expert reports.

The Producing Party shall provide all such source code in paper form including bates numbers and the label "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—SOURCE CODE." The Receiving Party shall only make additional paper copies if such additional copies are (1) necessary to prepare court filings, pleadings, or other papers (including a testifying expert's expert report), (2) necessary for deposition, or (3) otherwise necessary for the preparation of its case. Any paper copies used during a deposition shall be retrieved by the Producing Party at the end of each day and must not be given to or left with a court reporter or any other unauthorized individual.¹⁷

10.8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER LITIGATION

If a Party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" ~~[Optional: or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE"]~~ that Party must:

(a) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification shall include a copy of the subpoena or court order;

(b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is subject to this Protective Order. Such notification shall include a copy of this Stipulated Protective Order; and

(c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by the Designating Party whose Protected Material may be affected.¹⁸

If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served with the subpoena or court order shall not produce any information designated in this action as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" ~~[Optional: or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE"]~~ before a determination by the court from which the subpoena or order issued, unless the Party has obtained the Designating Party's permission. The Designating

¹⁷ The nature of the source code at issue in a particular case may warrant additional protections or restrictions. For example, it may be appropriate under certain circumstances to require the Receiving Party to provide notice to the Producing Party before including "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE" information in a court filing, pleading, or expert report.

¹⁸ The purpose of imposing these duties is to alert the interested parties to the existence of this Protective Order and to afford the Designating Party in this case an opportunity to try to protect its confidentiality interests in the court from which the subpoena or order issued.

Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in that court of its confidential material – and nothing in these provisions should be construed as authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this action to disobey a lawful directive from another court.

11.9. A NON-PARTY'S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE PRODUCED IN THIS LITIGATION

(a) The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a Non-Party in this action and designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” ~~Optional: or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – SOURCE CODE”~~. Such information produced by Non-Parties in connection with this litigation is protected by the remedies and relief provided by this Order. Nothing in these provisions should be construed as prohibiting a Non-Party from seeking additional protections.

(b) In the event that a Party is required, by a valid discovery request, to produce a Non-Party’s confidential information in its possession, and the Party is subject to an agreement with the Non-Party not to produce the Non-Party’s confidential information, then the Party shall:

1. promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-Party that some or all of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality agreement with a Non-Party;
2. promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the Stipulated Protective Order in this litigation, the relevant discovery request(s), and a reasonably specific description of the information requested; and
3. make the information requested available for inspection by the Non-Party.

(c) If the Non-Party fails to object or seek a protective order from this court within 14 days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the Receiving Party may produce the Non-Party’s confidential information responsive to the discovery request. If the Non-Party timely seeks a protective order, the Receiving Party shall not produce any information in its possession or control that is subject to the confidentiality agreement with the Non-Party before a determination by the court.¹⁹ Absent a court order to the contrary, the Non-Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in this court of its Protected Material.

12-10. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this Stipulated Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing the Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the Protected Material, (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this Order, and (d) request such person or persons to execute the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

13-11. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED MATERIAL

When a Producing Party gives notice to Receiving Parties that certain inadvertently produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the Receiving Parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B).²⁰ This provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery order that provides for production without prior privilege review. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d) and (e), insofar as the parties reach an agreement on the effect of disclosure of a communication or information covered by the attorney-client privilege or work product protection, the parties may incorporate their agreement in the stipulated protective order submitted to the court.

²⁰ ~~Alternative: The parties may agree that the recipient of an inadvertent production may not "sequester" or in any way use the document(s) pending resolution of a challenge to the claim of privilege or other protection to the extent it would be otherwise allowed by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B) as amended in 2006. This could include a restriction against "presenting" the document(s) to the court to challenge the privilege claim as may otherwise be allowed under Rule 26(b)(5)(B) subject to ethical obligations.~~

~~An alternate provision could state: "If information is produced in discovery that is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial preparation material, the party making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return or destroy the specified information and any copies it has and may not sequester, use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved. This includes a restriction against presenting the information to the court for a determination of the claim."~~

12. CRIMINAL OFFENDER RECORD INFORMATION

Discovery in this litigation may require production of material that contains Criminal Offender Record Information (“CORI”), which City departments are prohibited from disclosing by statute.

To facilitate Defendants’ review and production of documents, pursuant to Cal. Code Regs. tit. 11, § 703(b) and 5 U.S.C. § 552a(b)(11), the departments of the City and County of San Francisco—including, without limitation the San Francisco Police Department and San Francisco Sheriff’s Office—are directed to provide the San Francisco City Attorney’s Office and its designated agents, access to: (1) materials containing Criminal Offender Record Information; and (2) adult and juvenile criminal records maintained by the San Francisco Police Department or San Francisco Sheriff’s Office.

As used in this order, “Criminal Offender Record Information,” means records or data compiled by criminal justice agencies for purposes of identifying adult and juvenile criminal offenders and of maintaining as to each such offender a summary of arrests, criminal pretrial proceedings, and/or the nature and disposition of charges, sentencing, incarceration, rehabilitation, and release in adult and juvenile criminal cases. Included in this definition are images of any screen, device, or other display, and any sound or other aural perception, that reflects such information.

None of the Parties’ objections and responses to objections with respect to production of materials containing Criminal Offender Record Information are waived.

Should either party agree to produce documents containing Criminal Offender Record Information, or should the Court order either Party to do so at a later time, such disclosure to the Court and the Parties is authorized pursuant to the Court’s authority under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Cal. Code Regs. tit. 11, § 703(b), California Penal Code §§ 13300(c)(7), and 5 U.S.C. § 552a(b)(11).

Any documents or material containing Criminal Offender Record Information that are produced in this litigation shall be subject to the protections afforded to HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY information under the Court’s protective order and shall be designated as such.

14-13. MISCELLANEOUS

1 13.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any person to seek 2 its modification by the court in the future.

3 13.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this Protective Order no
 4 Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to disclosing or producing any information or 5 item on any ground not addressed in this Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, no Party waives any 6 right to object on any ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered by this Protective 7 Order.

8 13.3 ~~Optional: Export Control.~~ Disclosure of Protected Material shall be subject to all
 9 applicable laws and regulations relating to the export of technical data contained in such Protected
 10 Material, including the release of such technical data to foreign persons or nationals in the United 11 States or elsewhere. The Producing Party shall be responsible for identifying any such controlled 12 technical data, and the Receiving Party shall take measures necessary to ensure compliance.

13 14.4 Filing Protected Material. Without written permission from the Designating Party or a 14 court order secured after appropriate notice to all interested persons, a Party may not file in the public
 15 record in this action any Protected Material or Plaintiff's Name. A Party that seeks to file under seal
 16 any Protected Material must comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5. Protected Material may only be filed 17 under seal pursuant to a court order authorizing the sealing of the specific Protected Material at issue.
 18 Pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5, a sealing order will issue only upon a request establishing that the 19 Protected Material at issue is privileged, protectable as a trade secret, or otherwise entitled to 20 protection under the law. If a Receiving Party's request to file Protected Material under seal pursuant 21 to Civil Local Rule 79-5 is denied by the court, then the Receiving Party may file the Protected
 22 Material in the public record pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5 unless otherwise instructed by the 23 court.

15-14. FINAL DISPOSITION

25 Within 60 days after the final disposition of this action, as defined in paragraph 4, each 26 Receiving Party must return all Protected Material to the Producing Party or destroy such material. As 27 used in this subdivision, "all Protected Material" includes all copies, abstracts, compilations,

Whether the Protected Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving Party must submit a written certification to the Producing Party (and, if not the same person or entity, to the Designating Party) by the 60-day deadline that (1) identifies (by category, where appropriate) all the Protected Material that was returned or destroyed and (2) affirms that the Receiving Party has not retained any copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel are entitled to retain an archival copy of all pleadings, motion papers, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, legal memoranda, correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert work product, even if such materials contain Protected Material. Any such archival copies that contain or constitute Protected Material remain subject to this Protective Order as set forth in Section 4 (DURATION).
